Dear Friends,

As I am writing this, I am hoping to hear soon from the Reverend Jonathan Edwards, ex-president of the Baptist Union and now the first appointed executive ambassador for the Prospects UK.

The charity is close to both Margaret's and my hearts and with which we have had voluntary involvement for more than 25 years.

Sometimes in life you have to aim high and go for the top.

Not that you always get there, of course, but no harm in trying. And now that we have started our monthly Prospects meetings at Caldicot Methodist Church on the third Sunday afternoon of every month, I am hoping to invite Jonathan to come and speak to us at our Carol Service on December 15.

Already after just one Prospects meeting, the members of my church, and thanks not least to the sterling work of our Prospects Team, are sensing the excitement and the opportunities this work involves and generates in the community. And it is my sincere hope that come our next church council, the church membership will agree to be partnered with Prospects.

This does involve an annual financial cost, but a cost worth paying in my view. And which will help this charity, which relies entirely on church and individual contributions, to grow from strength to strength.

Music plays such an important part in a Prospects meeting, as does Makaton signing. In fact, in early February we shall have a Makaton signing training day at my church which we will open up to anyone interested, so watch this space.

Want to know more? Just visit the Prospects website prospects.org.uk and stand back in amazement.

Thank you for listening, and please if you read this can I ask you to support Prospects in your prayers?

Prayers are more important than anything else and they work.

Every blessing.
